June . . . 1. "I passed—did you?" Final grade cards are distributed.

WE HONOR MISS HUGHES

Love, honor, and obey; these three words, though commonly associated with something of an entirely different nature, we feel may be applied, without reserve, to the person of our dedication, Miss Marie Hughes.

Love, of course, refers to the love and respect which we, and her hundreds of former pupils, have for her. She has a certain charm and character which makes much more interesting the study of American History and English Literature. In her capable hands, these proverbially dull subjects come to life, and we can almost imagine that Washington, Lincoln, Shakespeare, Milton, etc., are standing before us, telling the story in their own words.

A casual visitor to one of Miss Hughes' classes would realize at once that obedience is predominant. It is not, however, of the strap-and-ruler variety. It is more of an intangible something which presides over the room, and which is evident whenever Miss Hughes must correct an unruly pupil. On nearly all occasions, a look and a word from Miss Hughes is sufficient to quiet a disobedient student. Rare is the student who needs sterner treatment.

And so, the Senior Class of Shelby High School takes this opportunity to honor and pay tribute to Miss Marie Hughes. She has been an instructress in the Shelby Public Schools for thirty-five years, during which time she has served them faithfully and energetically. She began her teaching career in the Shelby Elementary Schools, but soon was transferred to the high school, where she has taught to the present time.

Throughout the years, she has taught various subjects—among them, English and Math—but her greatest contribution has been in the challenges which she puts forth to the youth of Shelby in their study of American History.

Miss Hughes was graduated from Ohio Wesleyan University and she has studied at Harvard University. She has toured the Continent, thus adding to her large store of European culture, which, in her teaching, she passes on to us.

We of the Scarlet S staff wish to extend a special vote of thanks to Miss Hughes, because she was once the advisor for the Shelby High School Annual. This is only one of the many extra-curricular activities to which she has devoted her time, without thought of compensation.

Thus we are proud and happy to have the honor of dedicating the 1951 Scarlet S to our teacher, advisor, and, above all, our friend, Miss Marie Hughes.

In every high school in the state . . . a group of intelligent, industrious young men and women, who, for three years, have been subjected to the "ignominy" of being not quite old enough, are eligible to enter that powerful realm known as S E N I O R S. This division of the yearbook is devoted to the members of the graduating class of 1951 of Shelby High. They were the eager, hard-playing youngsters who entered this school as seventh graders in the fall of 1945. Today, 1951, they enter upon the task of enjoyable living. Who knows if among this group there may be a future Einstein, MacArthur, Taft, or Di Maggio? But whatever they are, wherever they may be, we know they'll be men and women of whom Shelby can be justly proud. They're investment in our community—in our future!

OUR CLASS EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE...

Two members from each of the senior homerooms together with the class officers form the class executive committee. These representatives are selected by the members of the homerooms and the class in general. In the above picture the seniors who represented the class and homerooms are shown. Harry Shade, Gerry Wilson, Larry Paine, Dave Gump, Mark Lindsey, Dinty Moore, and Jim Barkdull are in the back row, left to right. In the front row are Miss Ruth Stroup, class advisor, Kathleen Henson, Bonnie Crain, Emily Heck, and John McHugh.

It may seem strange to most of the students that someone who has completed twelve years of school should decide to follow schoolwork as their profession. Such is the case with the people who will be shown on the following pages. We are grateful that they have made this choice; for without teachers there would be no education; without education, no democracy. To be a teacher there are many essential requirements, the main part of which concern the character and personality of the individual. Other qualifications are patience, tact, understanding, friendliness, sense of humor, and a good knowledge of the subject matter. The students of Shelby High feel that our teachers fulfill these qualifications.

HE SUPERVISES THE SCHOOL.

Mr. Byron H. Carmean, A. B., M. A.
Superintendent of Shelby City Schools

Supervising the entire school system of a city the size of Shelby is a task that nobody envies. However, under the capable management of Mr. Carmean, this task is done very well. His ambition and aggressiveness in his work assure us that we will never have to worry concerning the future of Shelby's Schools.

Mr. Carmean's friendliness has gained the respect of all those who have met him. Men of his ability are few and they deserve the support of all who desire good schools.

Mrs. Margaret Laws,
Secretary to the superintendent of schools.

BOARD MEETS TO DISCUSS POLICY.

Superintendent Byron H. Carmean; Mr. E. T. Landberg (school architect); Mr. J. A. Anderson; Mr. Reymer Bricker; Mr. Sanford Weaver; Mr. Paul Curry; Dr. E. D. Dowds; and Mr. Arthur Love.

Shelby's Board of Education is composed of five men who are elected to their positions by the people of the community. Mr. Arthur Love has been selected by the school board members to serve his second consecutive year as president. Mr. Reymer Bricker has been named vice-president. For clerk-treasurer the board has named Mr. Sanford Weaver.

The board meets regularly during the year and at various times for specially called meetings to discuss policy for the schools.

THE STUDENTS' FRIEND

"Mac", our principal since 1946, needs no introduction. All of us have occasion to meet him from time to time. To most of us school is a nine-month job for students and teachers but to him it is twelve months of hard and tedious work.

He takes care of all our little whims and fancies, and he seldom loses his patience. We appreciate his desire to help us over our many problems.

Amid the tiresome bother of studies and lessons, ways are found to make life at Shelby High School a little more pleasant and less tedious. Even though the main interest in Shelby High is getting the required curriculum through the heads of the pupils, it is nevertheless concerned with making its graduates acceptable members of society. This is accomplished by means of groups and organizations in which they work together. Among these groups are the band, choir, and various clubs. The members of the clubs hold regular meetings, sponsor dances, and help promote that in which they are most interested.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL IS SPANISH CLUB

El Círculo Español abrió su primera sesión del año con la iniciación de los juniors a la finca de Ross McFarland. Para divertirse todos tiraron huevos. Entonces los seniors pusieron el ese rojo en la cabeza de cada junior, el símbolo de la club. El día siguiente los miembros nuevos llevaban sus libros cestas a sus clases.

Entonces con 31 miembros nuevos empezamos el trabajo del año.

Para descansar nuestras sesos fatigados, tuvimos una fiesta de la víspera de todos los santos, con mucho sidra y bollitos de amasijo, en las casa de Eloise Hildebrandt.

En los días antes de la Navidad en preparación para el baile formal, et "Snowball" Todos trabajaron mucho haciendo pinturas de hombres de nieve, campanas gigantecas, y todas de las cosas que se tiene que hacer para un baile formal.

Una fiesta de primavera, y un picnic nos ayudó a terminar el año.

The Spanish Club opened its first meeting of the year with the initiation of the juniors at Ross McFarland's farm. The juniors and seniors got thoroughly covered with eggs. Then the forehead of each junior was marked with the red "S", symbol of the club. The following day the juniors carried their books to their classes in baskets.

Then with 31 new members we began the work of the year.

To rest our weary brains, we had a Halloween party, with lots of cider and doughnuts, at the home of Eloise Hildebrandt.

During the days preceding Christmas we all worked like little Spanish beavers making paper snowmen, large bells, and the myriads of things that had to be done in preparation for our formal dance, the "Snowball."

A spring party and a picnic helped us to finish out the year in fine style.

THESPIANS GIVE ALL-SCHOOL PLAY

Production: The Thespian Club

Director: Miss Ruth Kellermeyer

Stars: Bonnie Crain—President

Susan Whisler—Vice-President

Dorinda Randall—Secretary-Treasurer

Supporting Cast: Other members of the club

Plot: The production was begun in September when the first meeting was held to elect officers. The results showed that this is no longer a man's world.

The keynote of the production was dramatics, of which the most important to the Thespians was the All-School Play, which it sponsored. This year "Nine Pine Street" was presented, and the members of the club who were not in the play were kept busy making posters, selling tickets, and helping in its promotion.

In March, a formal initiation was held at Ed Lewis' home, at which time new members were indoctrinated into the club.

Many new ideas were instituted at club meetings during the past year. Reviews of Broadway plays were given by members, and Miss "K" took it easy while members directed and participated in one-act plays.

The Thespians can look back on many happy times as a successful season draws to a close, and . . . the curtain falls.

FIRST ROW: Joy Patrick, Verona Sargent, Eleanor Phillips, Leola Scheerer, Lois Scheerer, Shirley Ralston, Elizabeth Walker, and Bonnie Crain, head usher.
SECOND ROW: Beverly Myers, Laurita Hannafus, Virginia Petrie, Mrs. Berney, Mary K. Bricker, Susan Whisler, Doris Stoffer.

MAY I SHOW YOU

TO YOUR SEAT?

The ushers served as hostesses for all the programs that were given in the school auditorium during the year. The guests attending these, whether they were sponsored by the school organizations or community groups, were entitled to the best of service. These girls were selected to be of service to the guests.

The ushers are required to be at school for at least twenty programs during the school year. If a girl serves for four years, she is entitled to witness about eighty performances as well as be of service to many people.

The young hostesses were on duty for the class plays, the Thespian Club and Music department productions, the baccalaureate and commencement programs, the Legion program which presented the Mastersingers of Mansfield, the St. Patrick's Day program presented by the children of St. Mary's school, the May Day program presented by Central School, together with other important presentations.

The ushers were attired in attractive gray suits during the year for their ushering duties. They also wore chic hats which aided in identifying them immediately.

WILLING WORKERS

BACK ROW: Doris Stoffer (Athletics); Anne Herlihy (Attendance); Betty Reau (Music); Bernice Postema (Attendance); Eileen Workman (Attendance); and Jeanette Peterson (Attendance).
FIRST ROW: Sally Schmidt (Athletics); Donna Cooper (Guidance); and Glenna Lee Blosser (Guidance).

By the expressions on the faces of these secretaries, one can tell that they evidently like their tasks. These young ladies have worked in various departments of the school and thus have gained valuable experience. The work that they did has been of great service to the various instructors for whom they worked.

These girls are Marilyn Lewis (10th); Lois Hall (10th); Lovell McKinney (9th); Beverly Myers (9th); and Miss Luella Kuhn, school librarian. Each of these girls worked in the library one period each day.

Books, magazines, records, reports—these are the materials that five young ladies have learned to sort, identify, and classify in their work experience of being assistants to the school librarian.

HOMEMAKERS HAD BUSY SCHEDULE

FIRST ROW: Miss Stroup, D. Fry, N. Gearhart, B. Pry, L. Ball, M. McKinney, Miss Kuhn, M. Smith, H. Stump, D. Byrd, and Mrs. Weaver.

SECOND ROW: F. Ball, S. Baird, B. Myers, S. Whitney, D. Henson, D. Marshall, J. Pfahler, J. Swartz, M. Waines, M. Patrick, and M. Blatter.

These busy little lassies started the year with the election of officers. They selected Lois Ball as president; Sally Baird, the vice-president; Shirley Whitney, secretary; Faye Ball, treasurer; Martha Waines, historian; Marianne Patrick, parliamentarian; and Doris Marshall and Mariella Smith, scribes. Miss Leora Kuhn served as advisor and was assisted by Mrs. Frieda Weaver and Miss Ruth Stroup. Mrs. Virgil Baird was selected to serve as club mother, and Mr. Baird to serve as club father.

As a special speaker for one of the meetings this year, Miss Betty Newton, of the Ohio Fuel Gas Company, gave an interesting talk on the subject, "Careers Growing Out of Home Economics."

In a beautiful formal ceremony the new members of the organization were initiated into the society one cold and slippery night at the high school. Junior and Chapter Homemaker Degrees were given to the eligible members.

A bake sale was sponsored by the group as one of the projects for the year. Another was the time spent in doing "hemming work." The members seemed to enjoy both these projects.

For social activities the club participated in county rallies, a Christmas grab-bag party, a farewell to seniors night, a family night, and a picnic.

One of the highlights of the activities for the year was the annual dance, "Cupid's Frolic". This was held during the valentine season in February. Miss Lois Ball was crowned "Queen of Hearts" by last year's queen, Joan Swartz.

OUR STUDENT COUNCIL

FIRST ROW: George Hays, Treas., Bonnie Crain, Sec., Larry Reno, Pres., Mrs. Yetzer, Advisor, Kenneth Payne, V. Pres.

THIRD ROW: Denny Herlihy, Shirley Seitz, Janel Irey,

Duane Emerson, Don Thurman, Tom Green, Emily Heck, Alice Marshall, Eleanor Philips, Faye Hodges, Virginia Blatter.

Under the capable guidance of Mrs. Edith Yetzer, the 1950-51 Student Council made the tenth year since its founding one of the best.

The Student Council has one of the most responsible tasks of all student organizations. The Council assists with the planning of the school calendar, it conducts the homecoming queen, cheerleader, and Jay-teen Council elections. It sends flowers at the time of bereavement in the family of students and teachers.

The Council sponsors all of the assembly programs that are held in the auditorium, and the Recognition Day Program held at the end of the year. It pays for the awards it gives for the best citizen and most courteous student in each class and then the most worthy student in the entire school.

It meets its expenses by selling programs at all of the home football games.

The Student Council is composed of one representative from each of the homerooms and the officers of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. The council president for this year is Lawrence Reno, a senior. The other officers are Kenneth Payne, vice-president; Bonnie Crain, secretary; and George Hays, treasurer.

BUCKEYE BOYS' AND GIRLS' STATE

The 1950 Buckeye Boys' State was composed of 1003 eager boys who came prepared to work, and who did work.

The first day was one of the busiest days as the boys became acquainted with one another and began their campaigns. The fact that high water had visited the site of the camp the day before did not help matters as a good many cabins were flooded.

The entire state was fed by three or four large cafeterias kept by the National Guard, and it took an army to feed these hungry boys who were whetting their appetites by outdoor living, work, and play.

The boys from Shelby were elected, or appointed, to the following positions: Lawrence Paine, Safety Director; John McHugh, Civil Service; David Gump, City Inspector; Lawrence Reno, City Treasurer; Charles Blosser, City Engineer; Richard Tullis, State Senator.

To receive your diploma from the school you must have money in the bank and owe no bills. This everyone from Shelby managed easily.

After 10 days, the boys were released to the world again: radios, girls, newspapers, girls, telephones, and girls.

We know that these boys are truly grateful for the chance that they have had and that they wish that all boys and girls could take part in a similar program.

This year the city of Shelby sent two girls, Kathleen Henson and Emily Heck, to Buckeye Girls' State. Emily was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, and Kathleen by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

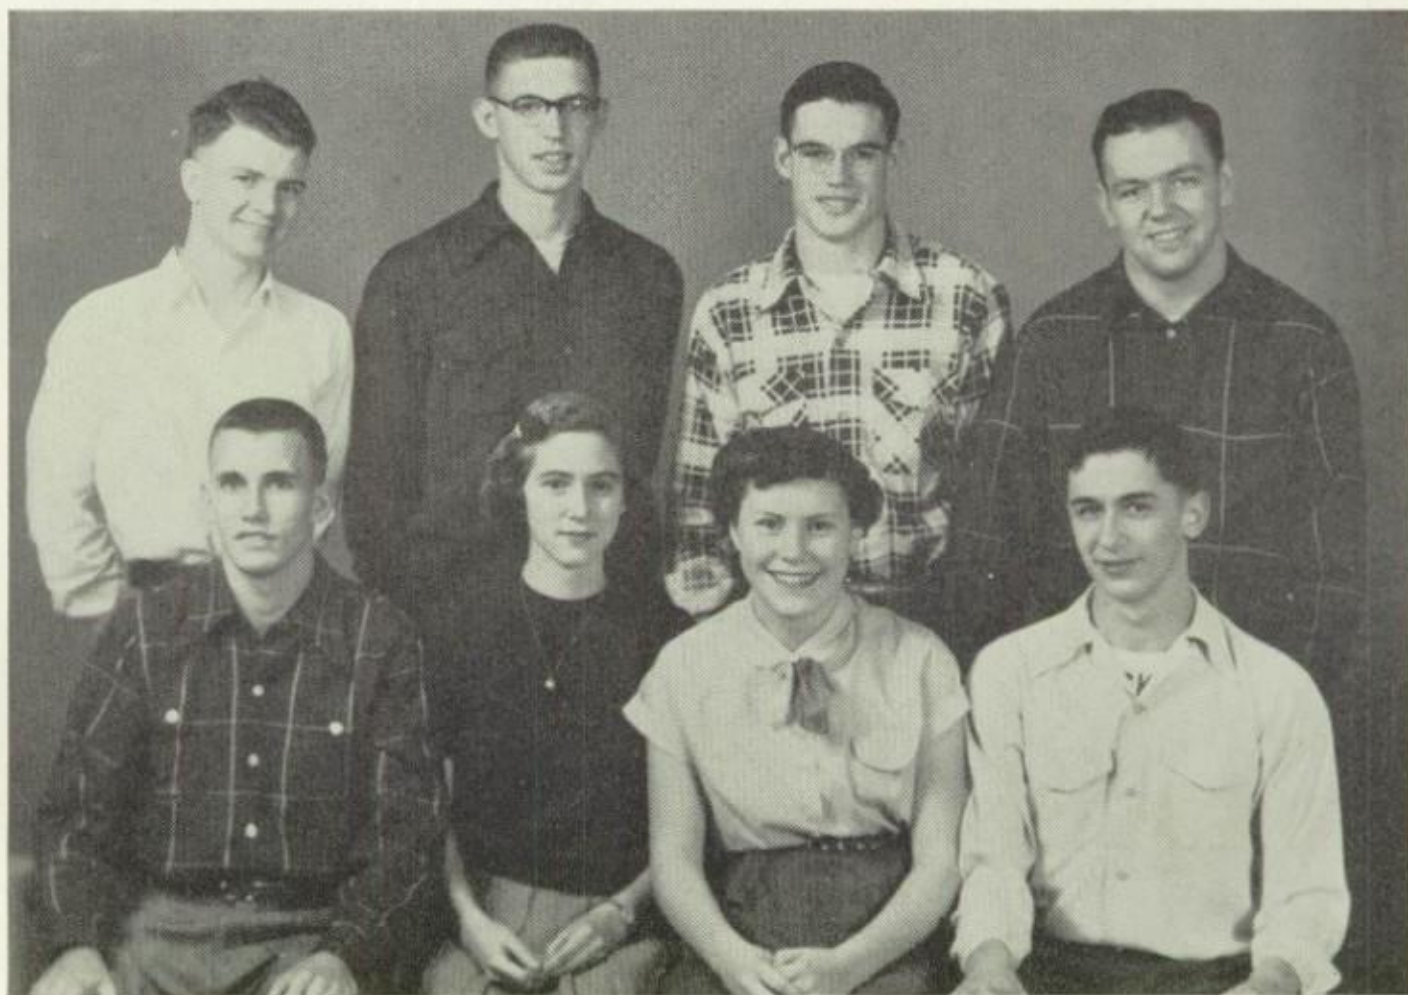

Upon their arrival at Capitol University in Columbus, the girls spent two confusing days of campaigning. Emily ran for State Representative from her city, and Kathleen for City Councilwoman from hers. Both girls won in the elections and settled down to a busy week at their respective jobs.

Throughout the week the 435 girls were honored with talks given by Legion and State officials. On Thursday evening the inauguration of the Girls' State governor, took place. At the banquet given in honor of the governor, the Secretary of State from Boys' State, Phil Casto, delivered a speech to the all-girl audience. After the banquet, the honorable Carl G. Weygandt, Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court, performed the inauguration.

On Saturday afternoon the girls were taken by bus to the Lausche mansion for tea. All the girls were presented to the Governor's wife and they had a chance to view the beautiful grounds surrounding the mansion.

On Sunday morning, after city parties and farewells to new friends were over, the girls left for home.

FIRST ROW: McHugh, Heck, Henson, and Reno.

THEY TWIRL...SWIRL...WHIRL

The twirling and strutting department of the band this year was considered by many "The Best in the League."

The football fans of our opponents teams as well as our own fans were thrilled at each game with spectacular "Black Light" productions and the stands echoed with "Oh's" and "Ah's".

Two of the majorettes, Anna Lee Irey and Betty Reau, are graduating this year along with James Barkdull, who leaves behind a record of six years service in the band, with four years as head drum major.

Three other majorettes high-stepped to the snappy tempo set by the Whippet Band. Sandra Jones, Shirley Seitz, and Edna Workman alternate at the games.

At each game the Whippet Band marched down the field, giving the fans a thrill with their high stepping majorettes and the precision marching of the band. The band has had the use of the black-lite for the past four years, but this year, the costuming under the direction of Miss Luella Kuhn and the scenery under the capable supervision of Miss Kellermeyer and her crew were better than ever. Miss "Kay" has sacrificed much of her time to designing the scenery and carrying out the theme of each half-time show. This causes suspense in the crowd. (Will they make it? ?)

The "Whippet Band Mothers" is a new organization designed chiefly to back the band. After each show the band members look forward eagerly to the hotdogs and cokes which the mothers furnish.

During the summers and the school year, the mothers have sponsored square dances and ice cream socials to raise money for uniforms and instruments.

The band not only makes a good showing on the field, but also shows its prowess on the concert stage. For several years the band has attended the state and district contests. The band also attends the Northern Ohio League band festival. The climax of their year is the formal spring concert.

SUCH SWEET MUSIC

THE SENIOR CHOIR

The first rehearsal of the senior choir sounded mighty sad. (Wasn't there one musician in the crowd?) However, after the Armistice Day program, the choir really showed their stuff. The choir spent some time analyzing its efforts with a view to endeavor to improve the wide gap between monotones and a top-flight chorus.

When the time of mistletoe and snowshoes rolled around, the group presented the annual Christmas concert. (By now they have earned the title of "choir".) At this concert, they sang many of the old favorite Christmas carols and some novelty numbers with "T'was the Night Before Christmas" highlighting the program. This concert is traditionally given on Sunday afternoon, and again to the student body as a Christmas present before school is dismissed for vacation.

After the snow melted, the choir and band gave another joint concert. Each presented several special numbers and then combined to give the audience a musical thrill.

The next event for the choir was the contest held in Newark, Ohio. The choir was required to sing a selected or contest number and one of their own choosing.

Another event on the spring calendar was the Northern Ohio League Choir Festival which was held at Bellevue. Four schools who are members of this league attended this festival.

The last event on the calendar for the choir was the formal spring concert which included the various ensembles, and the Girls' Glee Club.

THE GIRL'S GLEE CLUB

The Girls' Glee Club is a group of girls who are interested in singing. The members are students in the ninth and tenth grades. One of the purposes of the organization is to serve as a training course for those who wish to prepare to be members of the choir.

Several public performances were given by this group during the school year. They sang for several meetings of the Parent-Teacher Association as well as taking part in the Christmas and Easter concerts.

The officers of the group are selected by the members. The president serves as assistant director. Various members of the group act as accompanists for the club.

Marjorie Sullivan was chosen to serve as president, Janel Irey as vice-president, and Patti Seltzer as treasurer.

Mr. Paul Braden was director for both groups.

ENSEMBLES

FIRST ROW: Bernadine Workman, and Anna Lee Irely.

With the beginning of the school year, the two ensembles composed of girls of the upper two grades found themselves a little "rusty". They soon learned that practice can do wonders for a musical group.

Spring always brings the challenges of contests — district and state—together with many public appearances. All these performances require hours and hours of practice. When the contest day arrived, these ensembles did not fail to represent Shelby High in an excellent manner. Both groups returned from district and state meetings with high awards. (Now, were the long hours of rehearsal really worth it?— Ah, yes, indeed.)

These ensembles would not function without the encouragement and direction of the two men responsible for the groups. Mr. Braden and Mr. Cottrell have given many valuable hours for rehearsal, advice, and encouragement as they supervised the groups.

The Monotones

A new group organized this year was the boys' double quartette. This musical ensemble was directed by Mr. Braden and was presented at the Christmas program for the first time. The members were invited to sing at various school and community functions. Their musical numbers were appreciated.

THEY SPOKE TO SHELBY STUDENTS

The annual Career and College Day was observed on Wednesday, March 21st. This has developed into an outstanding day for students attending Shelby High. Interesting features of this year's program were talks by alumni of the high school. These former students are now attending college and returned to talk to us concerning college problems. Roger Brucker, a former editor of THE SCARLET S, and now attending Oberlin College was one of these. Others were John Clark, Ohio State University; Frank Long, Ashland College (Frank served as photographer for the annual); Jeanne Coleman, St. Vincents-Charity Hospital; and Julie Anderson, Northwestern University.

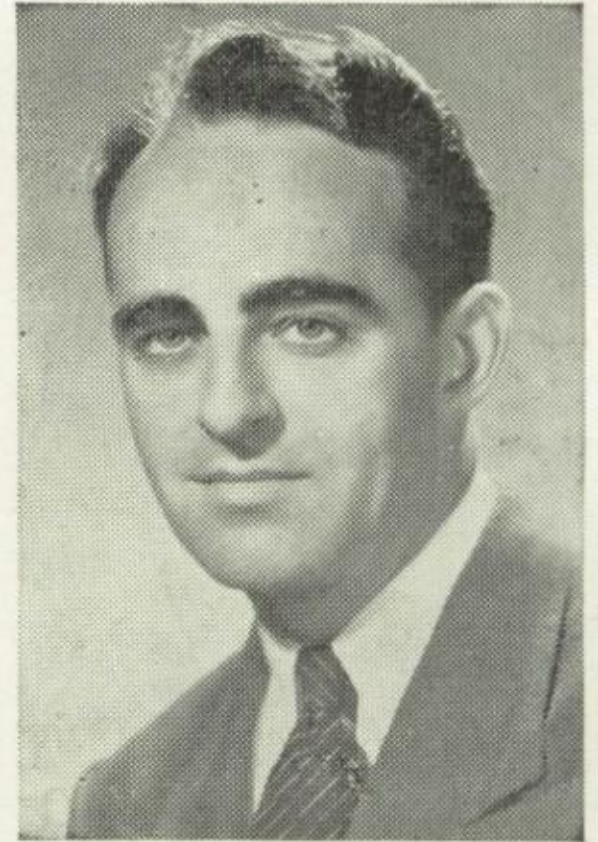

The Ashland College Choir appeared for the afternoon program and gave a splendid concert of Easter music. Twenty-five college and university representatives came to Shelby that afternoon to interview the students who are interested in attending college.

For the principal speaker of the day the school secured the services of a noted lecturer and author, Mr. George A. Bowie, of the department of public relations of The Firestone Tire and Rubber Company. Mr. Bowie spoke to the student body concerning careers and vocations.

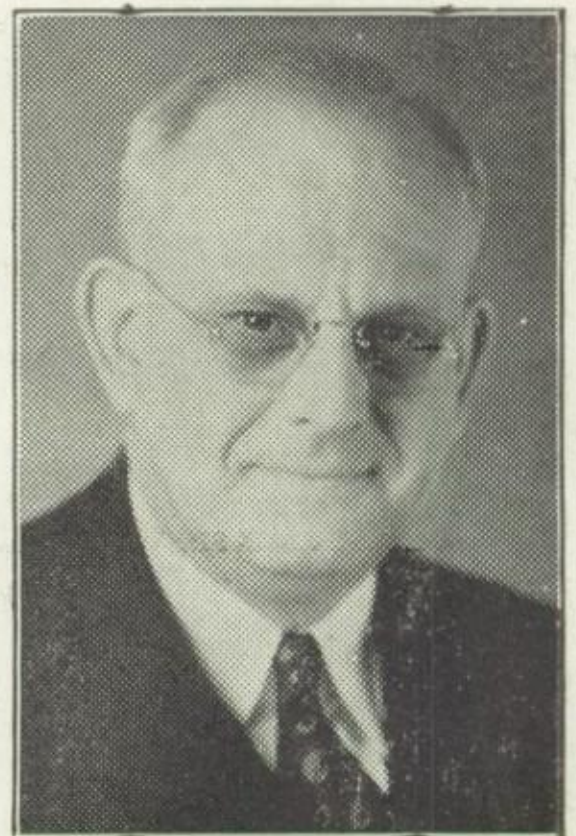

After this auditorium assembly the students assembled in various classrooms to discuss various professions and vocations with personnel representing these vocations. Twenty-six different vocational areas were represented.

This program is planned annually for the students of Shelby High by the guidance department under Mr. Wendland's supervision and direction.

The commencement speaker for the Class of 1951 had been selected by the superintendent, the principal, and the board of education. Mr. Arthur C. Horrocks of Akron, Ohio, was the honored speaker and guest. He is a noted platform lecturer and certainly presented an interesting discussion for the members of the class, their friends, and their relatives. May 25th was Commencement night for 89 happy yet sad seniors.

CIRCULATION

NINE PINE STREET

NINE PINE STREET was a three-act mystery play given to the school and community on March 8th and 9th. The cast worked hard and many hours to perfect the lines and acting. It was a difficult play to stage and to present because of the period (1890) costumes and settings. These were very elaborate. The stage arrangements were excellent (thanks to the kindnesses of Mrs. Raymond Dewey); the costumes were "out-of-this-world" (thanks to Miss Luella Kuhn and her helpers.) Miss Kellermyer directed the play.

The following pages are devoted to those students who find the time after studies to participate in sports. These people are the ones responsible for our trophies, press clippings, and many championships. Whether the team is molded from boys or girls, the Shelby Whippets nearly always bring home the titles and honors. We are convinced that as long as Shelby's coaching staff is composed of the calibre of men and women as it is today the Shelby Whippets will be a big name in interscholastic sports.

It was another great year for football at Shelby High as the Whippets successfully defended their Northern Ohio League Championship. They retained the CROWN for another year and the right to be called "Champs". The nineteen-fifty edition of the football squad rolled over seven league opponents by decisive scores and thus became the first team in the league's history to win the coveted championship two consecutive years. Playing an extremely aggressive, alert, and crowd-pleasing game of football, Coach Wilkins' Whippets finished the season with an outstanding record of seven wins, one tie, (with Fostoria), and a single loss to their perennial jinx — Ashland.

Shelby opened the season by coming from behind in the closing minutes of the game to tie a strong Fostoria team. This was one of the most thrilling games of the season. Next, the Whippets were host to Willard, yet they showed little hospitality as they trounced the Flashes 26 to 12.

Shelby then went to Galion for the first road game, but the Tigers were no match for the powerful attack of the Whippet team.

Bucyrus provided little opposition for Shelby's next encounter. They were beaten 46 to 7 (Maybe revenge is sweet at times). All good things seem to come to an end and Shelby's hope for an undefeated season was completely shattered by a good Ashland team played on Ashland College's gridiron.

The following week the Whippets proved that they were of true championship calibre by bouncing back into the win column with a 46-14 triumph over Bellevue. Shelby then traveled to Norwalk and downed the Truckers 39 to 14.

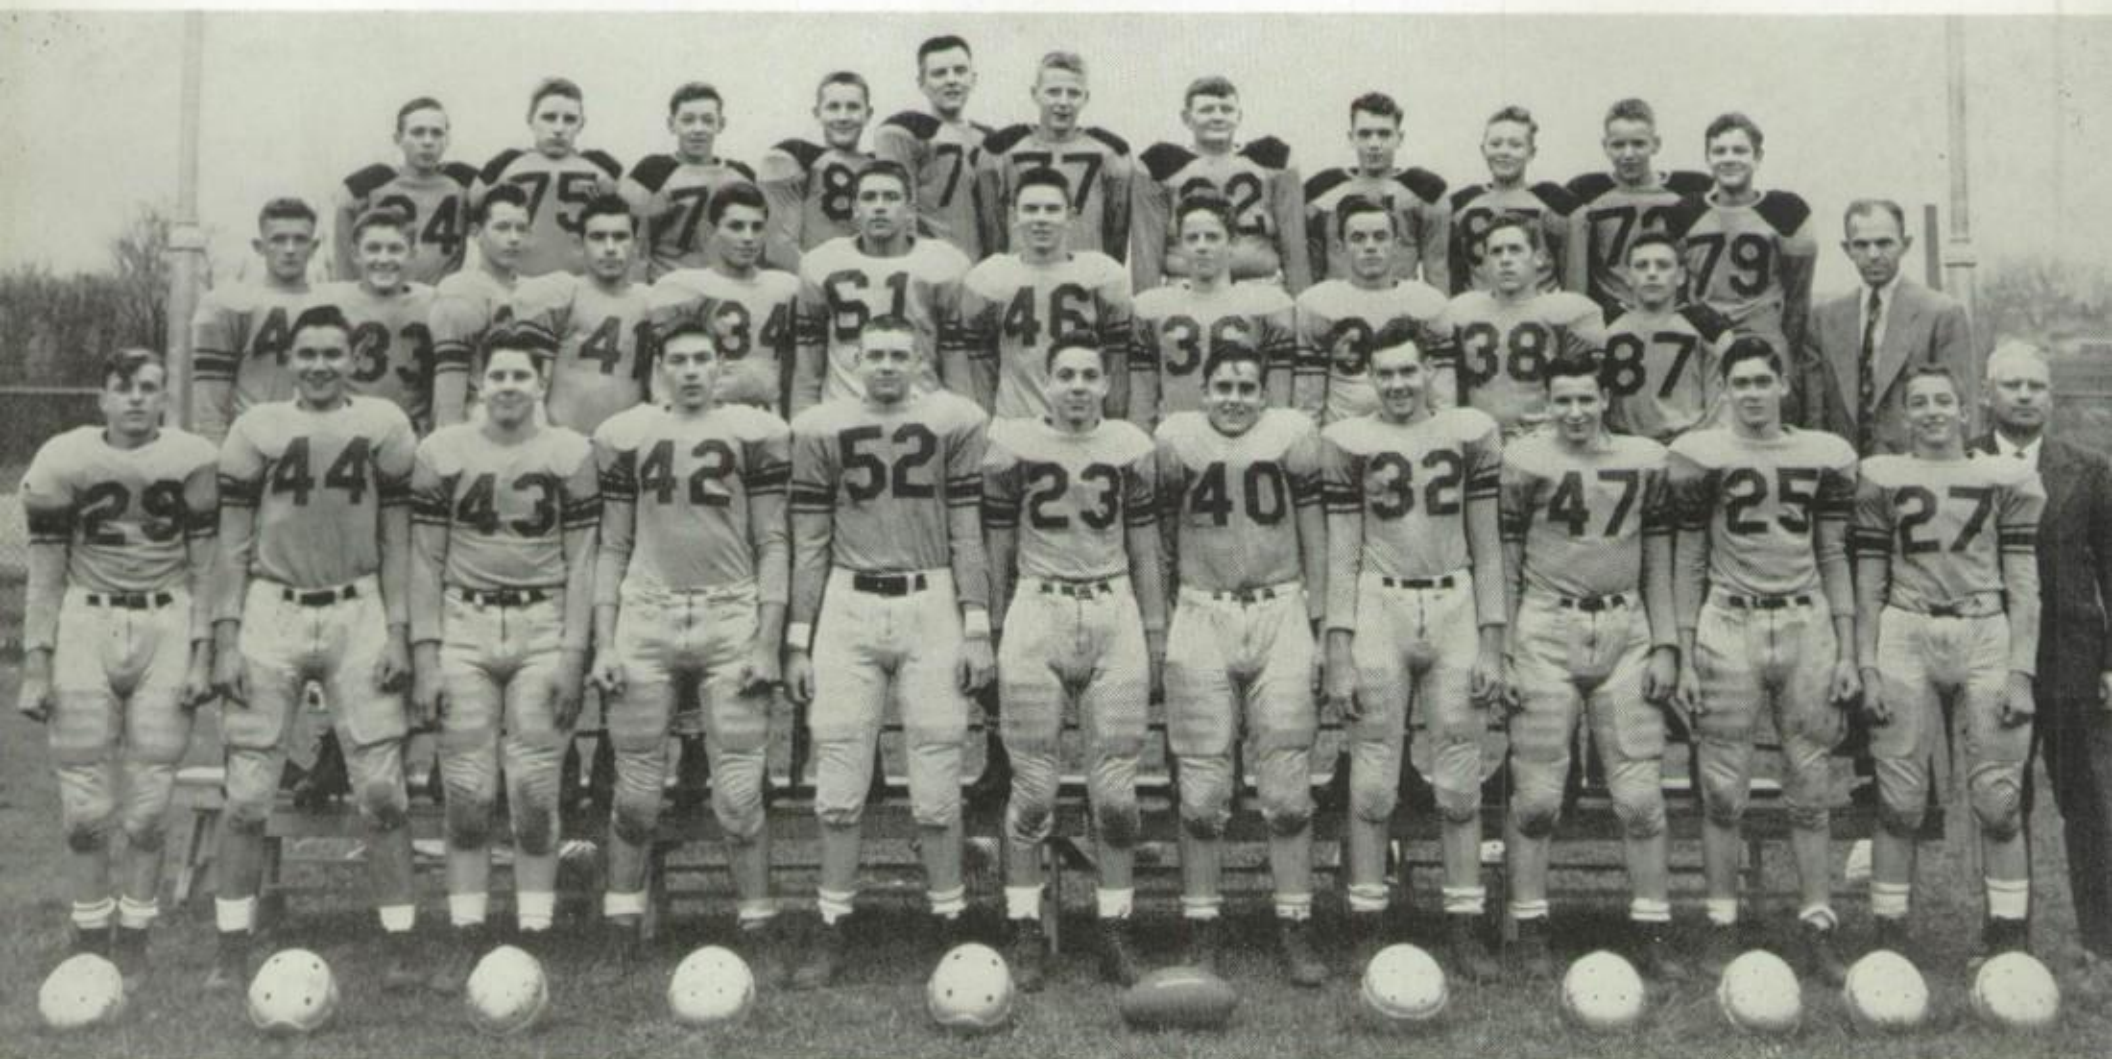

Upper Sandusky then invaded Skiles Field in what was termed the "game of the year" as far as the Whippet Championship was concerned. Shelby again proved themselves equal to the situation and bested the Rams on a cold and rainy night.

Only Crestline then remained in the Whippet's path to an undisputed N O L title, but Shelby was not to be denied. Crestline was defeated in the annual Homecoming game.

It was the excellent teamwork of the Whippets that caught the fancy of the many fans who followed the Whippets week after week during the season. It was a highly successful year for the CHAMPS—one that can be looked upon with pride for many years to come.

If the excellent record compiled by this year's reserve team is any indication of things to come then Shelby fans should continue to be treated to a top-flight brand of football in the next few years. Composed of freshmen and sophomores the young Whippets compiled an outstanding record of seven wins and only three losses. Shelby opened the season by beating Bucyrus, John Simpson was the next opponent and the Whippets squeezed by them. Willard acted the part of the spoiler though, and defeated the J. V.'s. Shelby then took the next two games in succession, besting Bucyrus again and Madison. A strong Appleseed team was the only team to hold the Whippets scoreless as they shut them out 19-0. Willard proved no problem in the second encounter and the Whippets were victorious. Ashland proved to be a jinx team even to the reserves as they eked out a close 7-6 decision. Shelby came back strong against Madison and trounced the Rams. The Whippets added a fitting climax to a successful season by gaining one of the few and far between Shelby triumphs over Ashland.

The Whippet Basketball Team came from down under to end the season in a blaze of glory. Shelby won the last five games to post a season record of 8 to 8. The loss of Witter and Wilson through hospitalization in the first half of the season was felt immensely as evidenced by their more impressive and improved status in the latter half of the season.

Shelby finished the season with an average of 49 points per game, with Blosser and Witter contributing most heavily out of the quintet.

The Whippets finished the season in 3rd place of the Northern Ohio League, but was respected more for defeating the league leading Galion Tigers.

Shelby played a defensive game in general while trying to score a few more points than their opponents. The loss of two high scorers through graduation last year forced this situation upon them. Thus the quintet became proficient in the full court "press" used to rattle the opposing team by not allowing them to pass the ball.

In league play the Whippets defeated Crestline, Galion, and Willard. Although losing to Norwalk for N. O. L. records they trounced them in a return match for the final scheduled game.

The tournament was played at Marion this year, and Shelby started off by beating the N. O. L. champion, Galion. This entitled them to play Ashland. The Whippets bowed to the Ashland Athletics later on in the tournament and so ended the season.

RESERVES PROVE THEMSELVES

The Shelby Whippet Reserves won nine games and lost seven for the year of 1950-51. Bucyrus and Willard were the only league teams to best this fighting outfit. This seems to point to good prospects in varsity play for future years. The reserves totaled 639 points to their opponents 605 for a game average of 40.

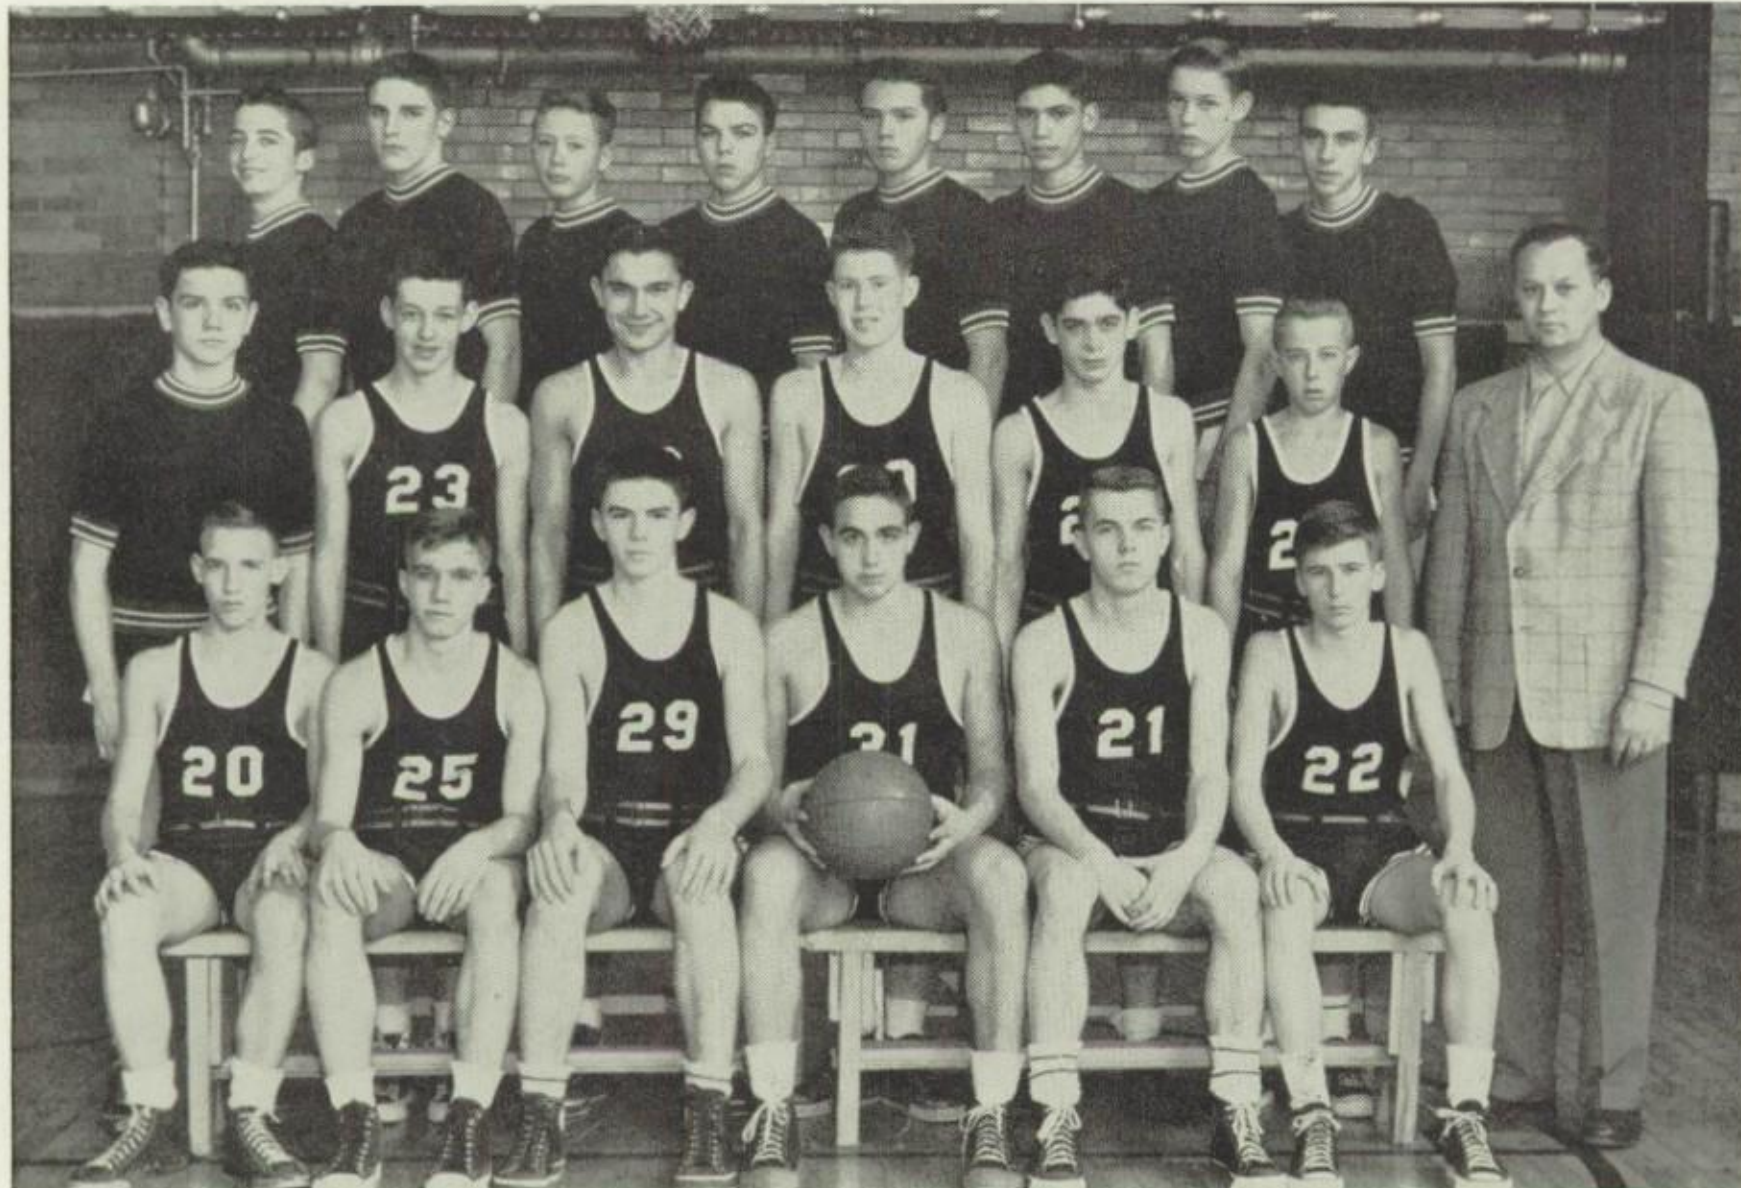

Wincel Ingram took scoring honors with 250 points for the year. Alfrey totaled 142 and Carlton 125. As evidenced, Shelby scored very well for a junior team mixing this with good defensive work while often playing much taller teams.

Junior Basketball

"The most valuable player. The man of the year." These phrases, as well as many others have been used to describe this years winner of the coveted "S" club award.

We all remember when Jerry first began to play football and basketball. His quick thinking and excellent decisions have saved many a game.

He has always been elected captain of his team, whether it was a Jr. High football team or a Varsity basketball team. His ability to lead and the fact that both the boys and the coaches had the utmost confidence in his ability probably contributed heavily to his election to the favored captain spot so often.

How the fans would groan when Jerry would be slow getting up from a tackle or when the coach would call him off the floor for instructions.

However, the one characteristic that assured him of the honor of being given this award is his modesty. When the team approached the goal line Jerry always called a play which would allow some one else to make the score. And on the hardwood court it was Jerry who set up the play and sparked the defense but who seldom attempted goals for himself.

The "S" Club, composed of boys who have received varsity letters in athletics, has been guided by Coach Bill Wilkens for the past five years. The club started the year with only nine members. However, on March 15, seventeen brave, fearless souls were initiated and received into the club. Although the initiation was a trying affair for the new members, a good time was had by all.

The main idea of the "S" club is to maintain the highest possible level in athletics, not only ability to win but desire to win and good sportsmanship.

The "S" club also raises money for various athletic equipment for the school. In order to raise this money the club holds an annual dance in the spring.

The officers of the club this year were Richard Wilson, president, and Lawrence Paine, vice-president.

YEA TEAM! YEA TEAM! — FIGHT!

"Oh, my aching bones!"

It happens every year at Shelby High as the students who are interested in trying-out for cheerleading start practicing a few weeks before "auditing" for the student body in the auditorium.

About twenty students tried-out this year after being supervised by Miss Fessler, girls' physical education instructor. By the election of the student body, the following were named: Carole La Bonte (second year), Jim Nothacker, Doris Stoffer, and Richard Tullis.

These four people were responsible to kindle enthusiasm for every football game, all basketball games, and other events. Clever arrangements were planned this year in presenting large signs across the curtain on the stage, and large blocks with the letters which eventually spelled out — CHAMPIONS. The letter "p" was a small letter because of the loss to that annual jinx—Ashland.

A huge bonfire rally was arranged before the last football game to encourage the Whippets to do their best to retain the league championship.

At the pep rallies, clever songs were presented. Ed Lewis, a senior, was responsible for the words and these were well received by the students.

The girls in the G. A. A. have as many stiff joints and bruises in the fall as do the boys. Each girl must get back into training and be ready for interscholastic games.

This year Pat Palmer was elected president, Dorothy Anderson, vice-president, and Jane Swartz, sec'y.-treas.

They keep the organization running smoothly with the help of their coach, Miss Fessler.

During the course of the year these girls played the following basketball games. They took Crestline 25-19, jumped on Plymouth 23-16, fell before Mansfield 22-16, and lost to Galion 27-18.

When volley-ball season rolled around they engaged the following teams: they whipped Ashland 27-26, trounced Crestline 35-16, beat Galion 36-26, knocked Mansfield over 37-20, bowed down to Galion 26-18, and lowered the boom on Crestline 61-23.

SHELBY'S COACHES

Coaching duties at Shelby High have been divided among six men who also have class responsibilities. They have given unselfishly of their time and talent to direct the Whippet teams to honor and victory during the various athletic contests.

Mr. Wilkins was head football coach and was assisted by Mr. Swackhammer, line coach, and Mr. Cokor, back field coach. Mr. Yohn had charge of the reserve team and was assisted by Mr. Plocher. 7th and 8th grade teams were coached by Mr. Williams.

In basketball Mr. Williams was head coach. Mr. Swackhammer had charge of the reserve team. Mr. Cokor and Mr. Wilkins directed the 7th and 8th grade teams.

In golf Mr. Yohn was the coach and Mr. Cokor directed the track squad. Mr. Williams also had charge of the baseball squads.

THEY KEPT THE SCORE

Every Friday evening when the Football team played at the home field, W. W. Skiles Athletic Field, the score-board crew was kept busy adjusting the time signals, keeping an accurate record of the score, and recording the first, second, third, or fourth downs. For the most part they were not seen by the hundreds who thronged to the football contests, but their work was appreciated. They were trained in their work by Mr. Archdeacon. A "telephone" connection was maintained with personnel near the playing field.

Ostucoans salute you . . . we're mighty proud of your achievement record. You are the progressive young men and women who will blaze tomorrow's trails. Leadership in the years ahead rests upon your shoulders. Here's to your future — may it be filled with every success and happiness!

THE OHIO SEAMLESS TUBE COMPANY

The above picture shows the first Drivers' Training Car put into service in the Shelby High School by courtesy of Fred Laubie.

A new current model has been placed in Shelby High School each year. Next year, a new "FORD" Custom Fordor will be placed in the Drivers' Training Course with all the expense paid by Fred Laubie, including insurance, gas and oil.

"Jahn & Ollier Again"

A familiar and reassuring slogan

FAMILIAR...because it has appeared in thousands of the country's finest yearbooks for the past half century.

REASSURING...because those years of specialized experience bring complete service, outstanding quality and dependable delivery to the yearbook staffs, with whom we work.

Hi Neighbors!

As you of the class of '51 cross the all-important threshold, your ears already may be ringing with the sound of many brave words. Futile it would be for us to add more, except to remind you of two powerful ingredients from which you will derive a happy existence if you but add . . . your own conviction, and your own courage. The one: Power of Knowledge, for which you now have the foundation, can take you far on the paths of a material world.

The Greatest: Your Faith, which is yours for nothing more than whole-hearted acceptance, will take you into realms of successful living far beyond the material. Power to you . . . '51ers.

The CLASS of 1951
and the "SHELBY MUTUAL"
both look to the future.

There are good jobs in the insurance business for members of the Class of '51. Because folks everywhere have found the "SHELBY MUTUAL" a good company with which to insure—and because an ever increasing number of high school graduates are finding this a good place to work, this old and nationally known insurance company has been growing rapidly. Every member of the Shelby Class of '51 who is interested in finding out what a job in the insurance business has to offer will find our company officers glad to discuss it with them.
